

Please do not grant the banks the right to call because of an "established relationship". I signed up for the no call list because I did not want these type of calls. If I want information from my bank, credit card carrier, long distance provider etc, I will call them. I am tired of all of the unwanted calls. I should not have to pay extra for privacy manager just so I don't have to take these calls. Thank You
Carol Chambers